By signing this Scheduled Start Date Signature Form, both myself and my hired contractor (or first subcontractor, or myself as the installer), if applicable, certify our/my intent to begin construction on the approved best management practice(s) on the schedule start date below. I understand that I will receive the Start-Up Payment from the District only after this form has been completed and submitted to the District and all other SUPPP requirements have been met. I recognize that the Start-Up Payment will not be issued any earlier than 60 days before the documented start date. I understand that I will only be allowed until June 1 of the year following contract approval to complete the installation and have a district employee certify it as such. In the event that the BMP is not completed with the required time frame, I am aware that I will be responsible for the full return of the Start-Up Payment directly to the District within 60 days of the contract cancellation or my contract will be turned over to the Office of the Attorney General. Time is of the essence in regard to all dates outlined in this contract.
